Heritage Centre: first phase now completed

The first phase of the Thomas Whitty House revamp is complete and will be showcased on Thursday morning.

A £70,000 Heritage Lottery Fund grant in early summer paved the way for Axminster Heritage to start the work.

The extensive ground floor restoration, including part of the Drill Hall, will provide a display and exhibition area for the town's museum, including the town's carpet-making history.

The museum is set to open no later than Easter, and exhibits are currently being moved from the current location in the Old Court House to Thomas Whitty House.

Axminster Heritage chairman Dr John Church

TOP STORIES FROM ACROSS EAST DEVON AND SOUTH SOMERSET

AXMINSTER Heritage Centre: first phase finished

THE first phase of the Thomas Whitty House re-vamp is complete and will be showcased on Thursday morning.

A £70,000 Heritage Lottery Fund grant in early summer paved the way for Axminster Heritage to start the work.

The extensive ground floor restoration, including part of the Drill Hall, will provide a display and exhibition area for the town's museum, including the town's carpet-making history.

The museum is set to open no later than Easter, and exhibits are currently being moved from the current location in the Old Court House to Thomas Whitty House.

Axminster Heritage chairman Dr John Church stressed it is a work in progress and that more than £500,000 must be raised for the second phase.

Summing up the project so far, he said: "There have been many hurdles and many disappointments. But it is quite exciting, the heritage centre belongs to the town, we (Axminster Heritage) are just the guardians of it."

COLYFORD

Village playground now on the cards

COLYFORD is on the cusp of getting its own playground after a parish councillor offered his own plot of land for the facility.

After around two years of searching for an appropriate site in the village, Councillor Colin Pady, chairman of the council's amenities committee, offered to lease the council a section of his own land off Whitwell Lane, near Colyton Grammar School, for a peppercorn rent.

Before Councillor Pady came forward, the parish council had feared that plans for the playground would have to be scrapped, having failed to find a suitable site.

SIDMOUTH

Trow Hill repairs confirmed

TROW Hill, near Sidmouth, is set for a major £500,000 reconstruction and resurfacing project, due to start in January 2016.

The A3052 entrance to Sidford, between Steven's Cross and Dunscombe Lane, will be part of a seven week programme of essential maintenance unveiled by Devon County Council.

Ahead of the resurfacing work, drainage improvements are programmed to start from Monday, January 4th 2016. This is anticipated to take three weeks to complete.

Councillor Stuart Hughes, Devon County Council Cabinet member for Highway Management and local member for Sidmouth and Sidford, said the roadworks were one of the biggest structural maintenance projects on the road network this financial year.

Work will be carried out by contractor Lafarge Tarmac, who will maintain access for local residents and businesses throughout the scheme.

Details of revised bus times and diversions will be confirmed nearer the time, with the diversion map being published on roadworks.org.

From the editor's chair Real local government

THIS column has often been critical of those who serve on local councils, especially when politics and towing the party line overrides what is best for the electorate.

Politics is rife at district and council level and I have long argued the cabinet style of government is contrary to the democratic process. But it's an argument that cannot be won; the current structure is here to stay, no matter what party is in power.

Fortunately, politics rarely raises its ugly head at parish level – with some notable exceptions – where the purest form of local government still exists, I am pleased to say.

With little or no expenses for members, it's also the level of local government which truly is local. Councillors invariably sit on their parish councils for many years and very often are prepared to roll up their sleeves and help keep their villages spick-and-span.

Very often they also put their hands in their pockets for the common good.

A good example of this is a generous gesture by long-serving Colyton parish councillor Colin Paddy, who has donated a piece of land in Colyford after a two-year search for a suitable site for a playground for Colyton kids proved fruitless. By doing so he has ensured £20,000 funding from planning gain money can be accessed for equipment.

♦ HOSPISECARE is a brilliant charity, providing care and support for in excess of 2,000 patients and carers in Devon every year.

The organisation has a hospice in Exeter and day centres in Tiverton and Honiton, the latter being officially opened last week by Olympian Jo Pavey, who was born in the town.

This was made possible by the raising of £260,000 from local fundraising, an amazing achievement of which the people Honiton should be extremely proud.

Philip Evans

SOUTH SOMERSET Council leader fights for fairer funding

SOMERSET County Council's leader is urging on Westminster to recognise the "dire" finances of local authorities in this month's Comprehensive Spending Review (CSR).

Councillor John Osman is writing to the Chancellor and Prime Minister spelling out the stark impact of continual funding cuts on the council's ability to look after its most vulnerable residents.

The review will set out the expenditure limits of government departments, including the Department for Communities and Local Government, which is expected to be asked to make savings in the region of 30 per cent.

Councillor Osman's lobbying comes as the council introduces a freeze on all non-essential spending to protect services for the most vulnerable.

"We have come to the point where we need to tell the government in, no uncertain terms, what the impacts of continued austerity are," he said.

"Our ability to provide anything but the minimum level of support for some of the most vulnerable people in our communities is now being threatened.

"Neither the public nor MPs would accept a 30 per cent reduction in NHS funding. Yet that is the kind of reduction local authorities – with responsibility for protecting vulnerable children and adults – are being forced to cope with."

"I ask the Chancellor to stop and think what can be done to ease the situation for local authorities and call on Somerset's MPs to join me in making this plea.

The county council is facing a massive challenge to balance its budget for 2016/17 and beyond. Its direct funding from government – the Revenue Support Grant – is expected to have fallen from around £63million in 2014/15 to zero by 2019/20 at the latest.

OTTERY ST MARY Local concerns over police cuts

EAST Devon District Council will raise concerns with the Home Secretary about the implications of cuts to the Devon and Cornwall Police budget, which could lead to the loss of hundreds of officers.

Devon and Cornwall Police and Crime Commissioner Tony Hogg has warned that jobs could be lost and further police stations closed as he tackles a £39million budget reduction for 2015/16.

Cllr Paul Diviani, Leader of East Devon District Council, has made strong representations to Theresa May and Policing Minister Mike Penning. EDDC will also call on it's local MPs for support following a recommendation from it's scrutiny committee.

Devon County Councillor for Ottery St Mary rural ward, Claire Wright, called on the council to write to MPs, but Cllr Roger Croad said: "I can assure Cllr Wright that the Police and Crime Panel, of which I am chairman, has and will continue to question the Police and Crime Commissioner and the Chief Constable closely on the impact of operational decisions like this.

HONITON Olympian Jo opens new day hospice

OLYMPIAN Jo Pavey MBE officially opened Honiton's new day hospice in front of gathered patients, staff, benefactors and volunteers.

Jo said she was 'immensely proud' to open the £1.2 million building. Hospiscare raised the money to build it from a grant from the Department of Health, from charitable trusts and fantastic support from the local community who raised £260,000.

The long distance running star and mother of two, who was born in Honiton, cut the ribbon to unveil a plaque commemorating the day's event.

Jo made a short speech where she spoke of her fondness for the area and praised volunteers and staff at Hospiscare for their outstanding work.

Hospiscare is a charity that provides care and support for people with a diagnosis of terminal illness. Last year they supported 2,226 patients, of which 1,498 were new patients. Hospiscare also provides support for the patient's carers. They have a 12 bed hospice in Exeter and a day centre and two day hospices, in Tiverton and now in Honiton.

SEATON Town hall: Mayor responds to critics

SEATON Mayor Tony Woodman has responded to criticism from Seaton's Voice, saying the organisation seems to have forgotten about town council support to the tune of £35,000 plus.

Community group Seaton's Voice (which leases the town hall from EDDC) suddenly withdrew from a project that would transfer ownership to the town council. The town council was accused of changing the plan and excluding Seaton's Voice and others from the decision-making process.

Seaton's Voice also said it will present its own plan to bring the hall into public ownership at a public meeting on Wednesday, November 25th.

Seaton Town Council met on Monday last week and decided to press on with the original plan.

Mayor Tony Woodman said: "It is a shame Seaton's Voice made the decision but that will not prevent the town council fulfilling its duty, something Seaton's Voice always knew had to be done.

"It is up to the people. Not the town council or anyone else."

A date for the referendum is still to be set.

■ TRADERS CELEBRATE: Mayor Douglas Hull, surrounded by committee members, cuts the cake to celebrate the 70th anniversary of Axminster Chamber of Commerce.

Chamber celebrates 70 years in business

TRADERS celebrated 70 years of Axminster Chamber of Commerce with a gathering of members and guests to witness the Mayor, Councillor Douglas Hull, cutting an anniversary cake.

The gathering at the Old Inn, Kilminster, on Monday of last week was attended by around 30 people, including former chairman and representatives from the chambers in Honiton and Bridport and the Business Group in Lyme Regis.

They were welcomed by chamber chairman Shane Morgan, who helped to rescue the organisation when the former committee, led by gallery owner Lisa Lyman, decided to fold the organisation last year due to a lack of support.

Mr Morgan, introduced by secretary Joy Raymond, spoke of the difficulty of keeping the chamber afloat but said he was convinced the organisation had a crucial role to play in the commercial future of Axminster.

Former mayor John Jeffery gave a light-hearted resume of the chamber's history, recalling that his late father, Mr Herbert Jeffery, was one of the founders. Known as "Lord Jeff", Mr Jeffery was the first secretary with laundry owner Harry Cawley as chairman and the indomitable Miss Emmie Sheppard as president.

Mr Jeffery recalled that the chamber had been responsible for many projects over the years, including the commissioning of the town crest, with the motto 'Steadfast and Faithful', and the illumination of the Minster clock.

He amused those present by revealing that they decided to light up the church clock because committee members could not see what time it was after they came out of the New Commercial pub late at night after meetings.

by Philip Evans
philip@pemedial.co.uk

Mr Jeffery paid tribute to Mr Morgan and his committee for their hard work in making sure the chamber of commerce lived on.

Before cutting a special 70th anniversary cake, Mayor Douglas Hull, accompanied by the mayoress, Councillor Joy Hull, also praised those who had worked so hard for the chamber over the years and said it was vital that the town had an active traders' group to ensure Axminster remained "vibrant".

■ TELLING THE TALE: Former mayor John Jeffery keeps the gathering amused with his stories about the Chamber of Commerce in past years.

■ STILL IN BUSINESS: Chamber chairman Shane Morgan welcomes guests to the 70th anniversary gathering.

£1.4 million for rural economy in parts of Mid and East Devon and Somerset

THE rural economy in parts of Mid and East Devon, and Somerset, will be bolstered with £1.4million of funding support, Devon County Council has announced.

The county council is overseeing two EU funded LEADER grants programmes, which aim to create jobs and help to develop rural businesses.

The council is working in close partnership with a number of organisations to deliver a successful funding programme. The Areas of Outstanding Natural Beauty (AONBs), Local Authorities and other delivery partners will be providing support to businesses and organisations who are looking to access the funding.

A panel, made up of private and community sector representatives, known as The Local Action Group, will award grants locally to farmers, growers, foresters, other local rural businesses and rural community organisations. It will support projects that create opportunities to improve the local economy in terms of jobs and growth, as well as improving the quality of life in the area.

The Making it Local Action Group serves parts of Mid and East Devon and Somerset, covering parishes of the Blackdown Hills and East Devon AONBs and surrounding gateway market towns. This will oversee the delivery of more than £1.4million of funding over the next three years.

Councillor Andrew Leadbetter, Devon County Council Cabinet member for Economy and Growth, said: "Supporting the growth and development of a diverse rural economy is a key priority for the county council, and LEADER funding will offer a genuine boost for local communities."

Councillor Paul Diviani, leader of East

Devon District Council and chairman of the Making it Local Action Group, said: "We have supported the delivery of LEADER funding to the communities within the Blackdown Hills and East Devon AONB areas for a number of years already. This latest round of funding gives us the opportunity to really focus on the small businesses and diverse communities that contribute so much to our vibrant economy through the Making it Local area."

Perverse advice from Seaton's Voice

HAVING worked for over a year to achieve a transfer of the Seaton Town Hall from East Devon District Council to the town council, so that the town council could take out a Public Works Loan Board loan to refurbish the building, Seaton's Voice (SV) now say that they cannot trust the town council and urge people to vote against the transfer.

This volte-face is bizarre and potentially damaging to the town.

In October, SV put out a leaflet supporting its transfer 'to the community of Seaton with Seaton Town Council as custodians and with Seaton's Voice retaining management of The Gateway'.

Turning down the transfer will put the future of the Town Hall in jeopardy.

As SV correctly said in October, 'The result of this will potentially be EDDC sells the building on [the] open market'.

Yet SV now supports this very risky course which they rightly dismissed only last month.

Clearly they think that if the present agreed transfer to the town council is rejected, EDDC might offer it to SV (in whatever form it is repackaged in new proposal which they refuse to make public before next week).

We need a solution which retains the Town Hall for Seaton for another century and ensures democratic control for ALL the people of the town. The town council or a successor will always be there, but SV may be wound up in 5, 10 or 20 years' time.

All Seaton residents can vote for the Council, but no one elects the SV directors. If the Council gets it wrong, you can get rid of the councillors. How do you remove the directors of SV?

Seaton's Voice's campaign against the town council is not only risking the future of the Town Hall.

By hanging out the dirty linen, they are causing reputational damage to The Gateway and Seaton as well as to the town council.

Few would say that the town council has got this entirely right over the last few months.

However, I am aware of only one outstanding issue, SV's complaint that part of what they thought was in the refurbishment plans is no longer there.

I received a public assurance in the last town council that what we are seeking approval of, under Option 3, is only the maximum overall loan (£300,000), that specific plans have still to be drawn up, and all issues can be rediscussed in the reconstituted Town Hall Working Party, to which SV has been invited to send 3 representatives.

LETTER More letters on page 11

So there is a way forward on this issue. Like many people, I value the work SV has done in building up The Gateway, and the range of entertainment and community activities it provides.

I understand the feeling that this is the hub of the community, which inspires much loyalty.

However, The Gateway is safer in partnership with the town council than in conflict.

The Town Hall as a community building is certainly only safe through the agreed transfer from EDDC.

SV should withdraw their perverse advice to reject the transfer, and Seaton residents should vote for which they believe is the best of the three options on the ballot paper.

Do not vote tactically in the hope of a hypothetical and risky 'option' that is not on the paper.

Personal best helps humanitarian cause at Amsterdam Half Marathon

AXMINSTER runner Jack Richardson was part of a 42-strong team which raised money for the International Rescue Committee (a humanitarian aid organisation) by running Amsterdam Half Marathon.

Jack works for RELX Group and joined an international company team in Holland last month [October].

It proved to be quite an adventurous outing, and Jack said:

by Anders Larsson
anders@tindlenews.co.uk

"The journey over was rather troublesome with refugee issues on the French side, reducing all traffic through the Channel Tunnel to a trickle, causing immense delays.

"Somewhat ironic, as I was running for a refugee assistance programme.

"Hey ho, I managed a bit of drama myself when officials extracted me from the empty lorry park, as all lorries were held back.

"I was using the delay time to get a few miles last minute training in before the big event when officials approached and invited me to go back to safety of the passenger terminal building."

He joined the team at short notice, replacing an injured colleague.

Jack explained: "I started well down from my normal start pen and had several back-markers to get past before I could get to where I needed to be.

"By the six-mile mark, I had passed the two-hours and 1.55 pace keepers, so pushed to catch the 1.50 markers to beat my personal best from the Great North Run.

"By the time I was in the Vondelpark in the last few kilometers, I felt like I could pick up the pace, but held back given this is where the cramp killed me last year.

"As it happens, I did push out in the last 1kilometre and the last 200 metres felt great.

"I crossed the line with plenty more to give and posted a new personal best of 1.45."

From a fundraising point-of-view it was also a success, Jack concluding: "Collectively, we have raised nearly €8.5k [approximately £5,946], which is amazing."

■ OLIVE Jacombs Price was the invited demonstrator at Axminster Flower Club's annual Christmas Flower Arranging Demonstration.

Held in the United Reformed Church hall on Friday November 13th, the event was well-attended.

News briefs

Car vandalised

THE wing mirror of a car was vandalised when the vehicle was parked in Musbury Road, Axminster.

Police say the damage was done at some point from the early hours of November 6th to 8am on November 10th.

The make of the car was not given, but the colour was silver.

Anyone with information is asked to call police on 101.

The crime reference is CR/078255/15.

Car fire deliberate

FIREFIGHTERS suspect that an overnight car blaze near Axminster was started deliberately.

Firefighters were called to Stammer Hill, Sector Lane, just after 2.30am on Thursday, November 19th.

A spokesperson for the fire and rescue service said: "A crew from Axminster was mobilised.

"The car was well alight and extinguished using two breathing apparatus and two hose reel jets.

"The cause was believed to be deliberate."

5,000 crocus bulbs planted

A JOINT effort by Axminster Horticultural Society, Rotarians and locals saw some 5,000 crocus bulbs planted on Minster Green.

The work team included John Durrant with members of the horticultural society, community stalwart John Jeffery and friends.

Malcolm Reynolds of The Rotary Club of Axminster said that Rotary International Great Britain usually donates bulbs to schools and colleges as part of the Polio eradication campaign.

But this year there was a great surplus of bulbs, which is why local clubs were asked to get involved.

Mr Reynolds said: "Both sides of the pathway leading to the side door of The Minster can be expected to display an explosion of colour in March/April."

The bulbs were planted on Saturday, October 31st.

Axminster-based The Project expands

AXMINSTER mental health scheme The Project is to expand into Chard.

The scheme was formed in Axminster two years ago, and helps young people aged between 13 and 24 – and their parents and carers – by providing mutual support and new friendships, and fresh ways of handling emotional difficulties.

To cope with the expansion, The Project has appointed Axminster resident Lesley Brown as group facilitator.

She will run Axminster and Chard groups alongside Kerry Cable.

The Project is also very keen to hear from people of any age who may be interested in volunteering, particularly people who have had their own mental health issues or who have worked with young people in this field.

To find out more about The Project and how to get involved, visit www.theprojectyp.org.uk or ring Debbie on 07970 167341.

Still places for Christmas lunch

PEOPLE of any age who live on their own in or around Axminster can still get a ticket for the Christmas Day lunch in All Saints Village Hall.

As previously reported, local charities came together to raise £1,000 to provide Christmas lunch for 100 people living on their own, on a first-come first-served basis.

One of the organisers, Lesley Frankau, said: "We still have a number of places available and very much look forward to the pleasure of your company, so please do come along and join us. "So many people have offered to help behind the scenes, on the day and by providing food and transport; it is heartwarming to discover how many people want to help."

by Anders Larsson

Another sure-fire hit for theatre group

WRITING in the Guys & Dolls programme, Axminster Musical Theatre chairman Barry Marshall commented on the challenge of matching previous successes.

In recent years AMT has treated Guildhall audiences to some of the most successful musicals of all time – Hello Dolly, My Fair Lady, Show Boat, Annie Get Your Gun, Anything Goes, Kiss Me Kate and Jesus Christ Superstar. All blockbusters.

Last year the society reached a pinnacle with the staging of Jesus Christ Superstar which deservedly won brilliant reviews, not least from this newspaper. Could they raise the bar even higher?

■ WILL THEY EVER MARRY? Adelaide (played by Kelly Apps) and Nathan (Tucker Stevens) in a tender moment.

Guys & Dolls Axminster Musical Theatre Axminster Guildhall by PHILIP EVANS

Guys & Dolls – the film version in 1950 starred Frank Sinatra, Marlon Brando and Jean Simmons, was first performed on the Broadway stage in that same year and is due to make a third West End revival next month – was a clever choice to maintain ATM's reputation for delivering the big shows, having all the ingredients to woo the most critical of audiences – iconic musical numbers, pulsating dance routines and vibrant costumes.

Director Nick Lawrence, presiding over Guys & Dolls for the first time in his long career, laid down the challenge to match the euphoria of Jesus Christ and will be well pleased that his talented cast delivered with such panache.

ATM is fortunate to have attracted a number of young performers whose confidence on stage outweighs their tender years and whilst some looked like they may have been more at home in Bugsy Malone, they added a vitality, especially in the dance routines which were a huge part of this show's success.

Award winning choreographer Rachel Worsley should be taking a prolonged bow for the scintillating routines, especially from the Hot Box Girls and the Latino dancers.

The Guys & Dolls storyline may not live up to level of other iconic musicals, and the libretto is not littered with too many belly laugh moments, but there was enough subtle humour to amuse.

The story revolves small time New York gambler Nathan Detroit's addiction to crap games and his quest to avoid marrying his long-suffering girlfriend, Adelaide, with whom he shares a 14-year engagement. To rent a place for a crap game he bets against pro gambler Sky Masterson to have dinner in Havana with a girl of his choice. Sky chooses prude Salvation Army sergeant Sarah Brown and falls in love with her.

The role of Sky was coveted by Sinatra when the film version was cast, resulting in a fall-out with Brando. This plum role went to Tom Matthews, who excelled as Jesus in last year's production. Tom's ambition to go professional will have been enhanced by this performance which lacked nothing in confidence or delivery.

Playing opposite him as Sarah Brown was another talented youngster, Silvey Webber, in only her second outing as a leading cast member with ATM but a firm stage favourite in other parts of Pulman's Country. Her transition from prudish Sally Army officer to Sky's love target was achieved with ease and her charming voice delighted in such numbers as "I'll Know" (a duet with Sky) and "If I Were a Bell".

The distinctive Tucker Stevens is becoming a firm favourite with local audiences and I thought his portrayal of Nathan Detroit, the hapless crap small-time gambler, was his most successful to date. Versatility is his forte and this was a thoroughly believable portrayal which was certainly recognised by the first night audience when he took his curtain call.

Tucker was fortunate in having Kelly Apps in the role of his long suffering fiancé. Kelly has emerged as a huge talent in recent years and this was another portrayal which belies her amateur status. She always brings a element of class to any production and the role of Adelaide will go down as yet another of an ever growing list of stage successes for Kelly. No matter how challenging the role, Kelly never fails to rise to the occasion. One of the highlights for me was her duet "Marry The Man Today" with Silvey Webber (Sarah).

A plus of AMT is its strength in depth and this was much in evidence in this show with strong support from those playing the subsidiary players, including the motley crew of dice players, the dour mission band and others. They deserve credit for maintaining the Brooklyn drawl throughout and their sheer enthusiasm in the singing and dance routines.

So what next to edge that bar up a notch? The show has already been chosen – "The Full Monty", not the play or film version but a full blown musical, we are told, with terrific new songs and dances. Now there's a challenge...

Orchestra: Harry Wickham, Shirley Sreech, Jennifer Campbell, Ian Crew, Dorian Liley, Phil Makin, Josh Westrip, Christopher Holland, Robert Illes, Stephanie Dommett, Matthew Evans.

Young baker appears on TV show

A YEAR 7 student at Colyton Grammar School has taken part in the BBC's Junior Bake Off competition.

Alice Browning, 11, from Colyton, applied over the summer and, after a telephone interview, audition and screen test, she was picked from thousands of applicants to be one of 40 contestants on the show.

The series began airing earlier this month November on CBBC, with each episode being repeated the following morning on BBC2.

Alice appeared on Monday, November 9th but episodes are available on BBC iPlayer for those who missed the show.

Students receive Duke of Edinburgh awards

AN impressive 39 Year 11 Colyton Grammar School students have been awarded bronze Duke of Edinburgh Awards.

This prestigious award requires completing one task in each of three sections – skills, volunteering and physical – over three months, and then extending one of the choices for a further three months.

Chosen activities this time ranged from volunteering in local charity shops, to learning badminton and teaching sport skills to younger children. Students then took part in a two-day expedition over a weekend.

Year 11 student Eleanor Trew said: "I enjoyed completing my Bronze DofE as it gave me an opportunity to do a range of things I would not have done otherwise, and I had fun doing the expedition with my friends!"

In addition, the school heard recently that two former students – Aimee Browning and Harriet Welch – have been awarded the prestigious gold Duke of Edinburgh's Award.

Harriet, 19, from Whitford, and Aimee, 21, from Exeter, began the award while at school.

Ruth Bint, head of administration for DofE Devon, congratulated the students and thanked long-time volunteer-parent organiser Meg Williams for her work with the students.

Taste of life in the editor's chair for budding reporters

AT Colyton Grammar School, a team of dedicated student reporters is responsible for a constant supply of news reports covering the many activities that take place in school each term.

The team is managed by deputy head-teacher Richard Bush and librarian Sue Burns-Price, and the students are kept on their toes by a hand-picked student "editor".

The team is made up of sixth form students who work throughout the school week to keep everyone up-to-date on the latest happenings. From sports matches and Duke of Edinburgh awards, to chess champions and public speaking successes, no two articles are ever the same for a student reporter.

Working with IT staff for photographs and interviewing people in person, being a part of the student reporters team gives a real taste of life in the fast lane for Colyton students. Reports are used in end of term parents' newsletters, on the school blog and website and sent to the local press.

ALL SAINTS

MEMBERS and visitors of All Saints & District WI enjoyed a visit from Devon Freewheelers' Mo, with his motor bike, at their November meeting.

Devon Free Wheelers is a charity that offers a free out-of-office-hours service to the NHS. They are currently the only 'Blood Bike' service that is allowed to carry transplant tissue samples. Last year they were called out 2,700 times. They receive no funding. Costs are covered by donations and fund raising events. The cost last year for bikes, servicing, tyres and fuel came to £150,000. Why does Mo give his time freely? One of his relatives has needed medical attention for a number of years and this is his way of giving back.

The next meeting – the Christmas meeting with Bonny Sartin (The Yetties) – is on Tuesday, December 8th at 2.30pm in All Saints Village Hall. All visitors and new members welcome.

HONITON AFTERNOON

THE meeting, on Monday, November 9th, began with the president thanking everyone for their support and help in making the Group Meeting such a huge success.

She also recounted her attendance at the Autumn Council Meeting in Plymouth in October when Esther Ranzan, the founder of Silverline gave a presentation. They're had also been a talk about the Plymouth-based charity Shekinah Mission, which help vulnerable young people.

In the afternoon the speaker was Julie Summers, the author of Jambusters, recently televised as Home Fires. David Baldock transformed a grey day with his collection of slides and memories of beautiful gardens.

The Christmas Lunch is taking place at the Otter Inn, Weston on the 4th December. The next meeting will be held on the 14th December, with Christmas carols and seasonal songs. New members always welcome, meetings begin at 2pm in The Methodist Church.

MUSBURY & WHITFORD

THE November meeting was held on the 10th and, as this was the first afternoon meeting for a few years, there was a good turnout.

Apologies were taken and birthday posies given. All were saddened to hear of the death of long-standing member Peggy Mitcham. Arrangements were made for the County Carol Service. The bursary is still available for this year. Jean F gave a good description of the Autumn Council Meeting. The birthday lunch this year is at Hornsbury Mill. As it was the branch's birthday day, Carolyn P made a cake and Joan L had iced it. County Quiz is at Broadhembury on February 20th 2016. The speaker Mr Tony Burges, on the Jurassic Coast, was hilarious and informative, taking the audience on the 95-mile walk without leaving their seats or a single twisted ankle.

Devon exam results remain strong despite funding issues

by Anders Larsson
anders@tindlenews.co.uk

DEVON primary and secondary pupils continue to outperform their counterparts elsewhere despite poor funding, according to Devon County Council.

New figures released by DCC show that local children are beating the national scores in every single phase of compulsory education.

In Early Years, 72 per cent of children in Devon are achieving a good level of development compared to 66 per cent nationally.

In the Key Stage 1 tests, which children take at seven years old, the Devon results for reading at the expected Level 2 or above are up to 92 per cent this year compared to 90 per cent nationally.

Writing stands at 90 per cent compared with 88 per cent nationally and maths is 94 per cent in Devon compared with 93 per cent nationally. In all 79.8 per cent of Year 1 pupils are working at the required standard compared to 76.8 per cent nationally.

In this summer's Key Stage 2 SATs tests, which children take at the end of their primary career at 11 years old, Devon schools recorded 82 per cent achieving the expected Level 4 and above in reading, writing and maths.

That's nearly two per cent up on last year and compares to the national figure for 2015 of 80 per cent.

Throughout the Foundation Stage, KS1 and KS2, pupils in Devon's primary schools achieved results that were in the top 25 of 150 local council areas in all their individual subjects.

And in this year's provisional GCSE results, 57 per cent of Devon's students achieved five or more A*-C grades including English and maths compared to 56.1 per cent in all State-funded schools.

Devon's Cabinet member for schools, James McInnes, said: "I want to congratulate our schools and their pupils, students and staff for out-performing the national measures right across their education careers."

"Devon County Council is still one of the lowest-funded education authorities in the country by the Government. Every pupil in a Devon school is worth £270 less than the national average.

"That means our schools are some of the lowest-funded in the country."

"Despite that, with the leadership of dedicated heads and governors, the hard work of teachers, staff and pupils and the support of parents and families, Devon is doing its utmost to give our young people the best start in life we can."

Devon's head of education and learning, Sue Clarke, said: "The results from Early Years through all stages of primary education are very pleasing and reflect a strong pattern of improvement."

"I am glad our secondary schools have maintained their above-average GCSE results for another year although we are talking to heads about how we improve that still further."

"I would like to say 'well done' to all our students and staff. But, as ever, there are no grounds for complacency and our ambition is to have all our schools in Devon judged as good or outstanding by Ofsted and performing to the very highest levels."

day, December 8th, competition a decorated fairy.

THORNCOMBE

ON 10th November members met in the village hall to hear local author Helen Rappaport speak about her book, Four Sisters. Members were moved by the story of the girls and their brother, children of the Tsar of Russia, whose lives ended so tragically at the hands of the Bolsheviks in 1918. Since the fall of Communism in Russia there has been a resurgence of adoration of the Russian Imperial Family in Orthodox churches throughout the country. The family were canonised as Passion Bearers in 2000. Helen's talk was a moving and poignant account of the lives of this tragic family.

The meeting for the Christmas Lunch is at Fairwater Head Hotel on December 8th.

The first meeting of 2016 will be on January 12th at 2.30pm in the village hall, a Members' Afternoon with entertainment and tea. New members and visitors most welcome.

Santa's market grotto

STOCKLAND and Yarcombe Pre-School will be hosting s Santa's Grotto at Stockland Coun-try Market this month.

The market, on Saturday November 28th, will be open from 10am to 12pm in Stockland Village Hall, and featuring a host of Christmas goodies including arts and crafts, cards, hand-made unique gifts and sumptuous food and drink.

A spokesperson for the pre-school said: "The Grotto is always hugely popular and gives the children a real sense of magic and excitement in the run up to Christmas.

"For just £2 your child will get to meet Santa in his tinsel-festooned grotto and they will also receive a small gift from Father Christ-mas.

"While they wait the children can indulge in some festive crafts run by a handful of rather large elves.

"It is advisable to book a slot with Santa to ensure your child is not disappointed."

Call Eve Smith at Stockland and Yarcombe Pre-School on 07954 403038 for more infor-mation or to book a slot with Santa.

School open days

THE first of two open days at Branscombe Primary School will be held today (Tuesday) from 9.30am-11.30am.

It will be followed by a second one on Tues-day, December 1st from 1.30pm-3pm.

Senior school administrator Nicola Bullock said: "It will be an opportunity to have a re-laxed wander around, ask any questions and join us for a coffee.

Christmas boxes

PUPILS at Stockland Primary have been busy creating boxes of Christmas gifts for disadvan-taged children around the world.

The school took part in Operation Christmas Child, a scheme run by charitable organisation Samaritan's Purse.

In total, the pupils rounded up a fantastic 50 boxes, and a further 30 boxes were donated by the community of Dalwood.

Whilst it seems early to be thinking of Christ-mas, the boxes needed to be ready to be shipped to reach children all over the world in time for Christmas Day.

A school spokesperson said: "Parents agreed that it has been a very valuable experience for the children, helping them to think about others less fortunate than themselves and encourag-ing them to be involved in the act of giving.

"Many of the children personalised their boxes with cards and notes for the receiver. It is

Church initiative could net £10,000

ST Andrew's Church's Great Chardstock Paper Plane Compe-tition could win the church £10,000.

The initiative has been named as one of six finalists in a na-tional competition to find the very best ideas for church fundraising in 2015.

The Ecclesiastical and Church Times Competition has attracted a huge range of ideas and high-lighted activities going on in places of worship across the land.

As a finalist, St Andrew's is guaranteed to win at least £2,000, and is in the running to win the grand prize of £10,000.

The winners will be an-nounced at an awards ceremony at St Martin-in-the-Fields church in London on 25th November.

St Andrew's has been included in the shortlist for its idea, which tested who could get their paper plane furthest down the aisle of the church.

Proceeds were put towards the repair of the church roof.

The judges shortlisted the idea "because it encouraged involve-ment from all age groups in the community, and helped to draw people into a street fayre".

More than 140 people took part, including pupils from local primary schools.

Michael Angell, Church Oper-ations Director at Ecclesiastical, said: "The range and inge-nuity of the entries were very impressive, and made picking the finalists incredibly difficult. "The six we have shortlisted cover such a wide range of ideas and are a testament to the creativity of the fundraising ac-tivities of churches and their communities."

The competition was open to churches and other Christian places of worship who have sub-mitted a fundraising idea over the last 12 months, or any they planned to use in the coming 12 months.

There were 424 entries in total from across the UK. The ideas from churches around the coun-try have raised in excess of £300,000.

St John service medal

HAWKCHURCH resident Alan Dale has been presented with the Serv-ice Medal of the order of St John of Jerusalem.

The medal was awarded at a ceremony in Exeter and was given for 12 years' adult service as a St John Ambulance volunteer. It is the only medal currently issued with the head of Queen Victoria and has been awarded to long-serving volunteers every year since 1899.

Alan is a member of the kitchen team at Fairwater Head Hotel, Hawkchurch, and was very proud to show his colleagues the medal.

Alan joined the first aid charity when he was just six then became a cadet and, when he was 18, took on a frontline role. He has run up 25 years' service in total and his first aid skills are an invaluable asset for the hotel.

Owner Adam Southwell com-mented: "We are very proud of Alan, who has worked at the hotel for 10 years, and are lucky to have a first aider so highly trained on the doorstep.

"Fortunately we have not had to call upon his training in a major way yet, but it is reassuring to know that he is there and could deal with an accident in the kitchen or a health issue with one of the guests."

When Alan isn't working or volun-teering, he loves walking his dogs and is also a great train enthusiast

New vicar installed

THE Reverend Kate Woolven was recently installed as Rector of Uplyme and Vicar of Axmouth by the Archdeacon of Exeter, the Venerable Christopher Fletcher.

Rev Kate came to Uplyme and Axmouth in January of last year as Priest-in-Charge and now takes on legal responsibility for the parishes.

A large congregation from both churches was present to witness her installation in Uplyme church.

Bell fund growing

FUNDRAISING for the repair of the bell in All Saints Church is continuing apace.

One of the innovative and more enterprising ac-tivities to raise money has been the collection of scrap metal for cash. Organised by David Baker and Libby Dibble of Smallridge, almost in a 'Step-toe and Son'-like manner, villagers were encour-aged to deposit their scrap metal and bits and pieces for sale with them to add to the Bell Fund.

Many trips to Scrap Metal Delaters EMR of Chard later, David and Libby took the opportunity at the monthly All Saints Church Village Breakfast to present a cheque for £313 to church wardens Christine Galvin and Tracy Voysey.

Offers of financial help can be made to Libby Dibble on 01297 34116.

Military attracts potential recruits young

■ LAST week's 'From the editor's chair' (No-vember 10th) understandably reflected on the annual poppy appeal and local remembrance services.

No-one would disagree with the editor when he says that 70 years since the end of the last global conflict "the world remains a very dan-gerous and volatile place". He then goes on to say (referring to increasing numbers of young people at remembrance events): "they will not have to go to war as their grandfathers did".

Fortunately, well-balanced children are not innately interested in war or its grotesque human cost. Their interest in it and attitude to it can only come from the adults around them.

The seeds of interest in army life are often sown at school 'cadet clubs' and by govern-ment-funded visits to schools by military per-sonnel. The ultimate agenda of these visits is recruitment, of the next generation. A sober-ing thought, given the thousands of mentally and physically wounded veterans that the British Legion is already trying to support.

Council must act on Seaton's danger roads

■ TOWNSEND Road is a very narrow and very steep; it's the only way down into the town from both the upper part of Townsend Road and the whole of Townsend Avenue. Cars and, frequently, very large vehicles park right up to, and often on, the mini crossroad. The yellow line must be extended - there should be NO park-ing. This is an accident waiting to happen - ac-tion now council before there is a fatal incident.

Harepath Road with the Co-op and Abbott's on one side and Townsend House Medical Centre on the other needs a pedestrian cross-ing - vehicles seem reluctant to allow the eld-erly and children to cross from one side to the other. Again - action now council.

'Journey's End': a special experience

■ ON behalf of Shute Theatre and Arts Guild I ex-tend warm thanks to everyone who supported the play presented in Shute Church at the end of Oc-tober in commemoration of the First World War.

Its reception by large houses on each of the four nights was inspiring; the silences after many scenes were more telling than any applause. The whole company was encouraged by the palpable involvement of the audience in every performance and the feeling that we had all, including the au-diences, been part of something special.

Pranayama – The Art of Yoga Breathing

We are born to breathe by filling our physical existence with vital oxygen, prana and by expelling the holdings of stress and carbon dioxide.

Our respiratory system naturally engages our diaphragm since infancy, gently expanding our abdomen and experiencing our breath in the most natural way!

Conditional living tightens our bodies to avoid emotional pain or unsafe feelings and our breath becomes very shallow over time.

Connecting to our full potential breathing space we can explore different patterns of our defensive ways that will have a profound effect on our posture and overall balance of the body-mind system.

Podiatrist/Chiropodist

Lindy Parry

I HOLD my private chiropody clinic at Townsend House Surgery in Seaton.

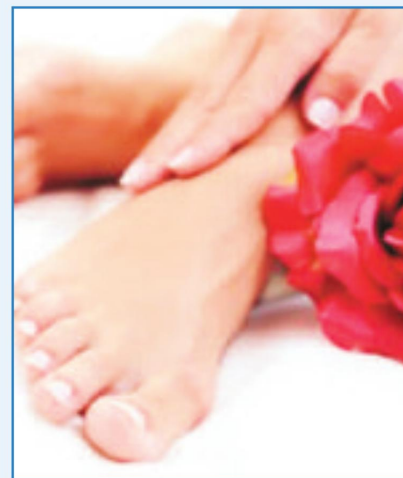

I offer a range of treatments from a simple nail cut to nail surgery, and each treatment plan is priced accordingly.

The nail cutting only service is a shorter appointment and is ideal for those that don't have any other foot care needs. Others like to alternate nail cuts with chiropody treatments as it best suits their requirements. I always aim to work with the patient to find the best treatment plan to suit each individual. Patients feet are then monitored during treatment so that changes can be made should the need arise.

Diabetic patients who attend for chiropody will also have a diabetic foot assessment carried out during their first treatment, and will then be monitored and re-assessed as necessary.

My chiropody clinics are available to anybody seeking help with their feet and Townsend House and I look forward to welcoming you.

Bookings can be made by calling 01297 22956.

Therapy of the Month

Kinesiology

Systemic Kinesiology (pronounced kin-easyology) is a totally holistic, non-intrusive therapy.

Central to Kinesiology is the muscle test. The muscle test can help to identify any imbalances in the body by monitoring a person's ability to hold a muscle against light pressure.

If there are imbalances affecting the body the muscle tested will feel 'spongy'. Each time a relevant factor is introduced, the response of the muscle being tested will change, similar to a switch.

Kinesiology can help with a range of conditions such as catarrh, backache, headaches, asthma and skin problems.

Jane van Spyk is our Kinesiology practitioner and can be contacted directly Tel: 07850 565 182. Further details can be viewed by following this link <http://www.axminsterwellbeing.com/complementary-therapies.htm>

Clinical Hypnotherapy Michelle Hague

Hypnosis can help with your motivation to make changes in your life.

FINDING the motivation to change means keeping up your effort consistently, when it would be easy to give up. It involves doing everything possible to achieve your changed goals.

Regardless of what you want to change, a habit, a fear or even an emotion, from weight to exercise and from creativity to the boardroom, hypnosis can help.

Motivation to change begins with the three D's. The first D stands for direction. Before you can begin the process of change, you must first consider the different directions you can go in your life, and set your achievable goals out clearly. You could continue your life as it is now, make immediate and dramatic changes, or take a slower route to change, either way setting a timeframe helps.

The second D represents decision. With these three choices of direction, you must decide on one direction in which to go. No directions is necessarily right or wrong, better or worse, they're simply your choices. Your choice will dictate what changes in your life and the amount of time and effort you put into those changes.

The third D stands for dedication. Once you've made your decision, you must dedicate yourself to it. If your decision is to make significant changes in your life, whether quickly or slowly, then this last step will determine whether those changes are going to succeed.

Your decision to change will then become a top priority in your life. Only by being completely dedicated to your direction and decision will you ensure that you have the motivation you will need to achieve your change goals.

Clinical and cognitive behavioural Hypnotherapy can help you set out these clear goals and help you stick to your plan, helping you stay focused and succeed.

Traditional Acupuncture Val Davis

Acupuncture can improve and maintain health and energy and enhance a sense of well-being

ACCORDING to traditional Chinese philosophy, our health is dependent on the body's motivating energy (qi) moving in a smooth and balanced way through a series of channels beneath the skin.

Acupuncture can affect the quality of qi, your body's vital energy, by the insertion of very fine needles into specific points along these channels. This stimulates the body's healing response and restores natural balance. Treatment is aimed at the root cause of your condition as well as your main symptoms. This approach helps with resolving your problem and enhancing your feeling of well-being. You may notice other niggling problems resolve as your main health complaint improves.

The type of conditions that I mostly see in my clinics include the following: arthritis, back pain and sciatica, poor circulation, low energy levels, hormonal/menopausal symptoms, pregnancy management, fertility problems, weight management, and addictions such as smoking. However, you don't have to be ill in the conventional sense to benefit from acupuncture, sometimes people come to see me because they are feeling low, unwell in themselves, or maybe not sleeping as well as they would like to.

Professional Acupuncturists spend at least 3 years training at degree level to become an Acupuncturist. We are then entitled to join the British Acupuncture Council and to use the letters Lic.Ac., B.Ac.C after our names. We also have public liability and professional indemnity insurance. Many of us have also studied at post-graduate level and are constantly updating our skills and experience.

So, why not give me a ring and see if I can help.

Wishing Well Cancer Support

HEALING HANDS Massage, a FREE talk for Wishing Well cancer support group given by Sanjula – Thursday 26th November 2.30pm.

This week's talk is about the benefits of massage, both for those with cancer and their friends and family. Massage is often used to relax the mind and body, relieve tension, improve the flow of fluid in the lymphatic system and enhance mood. Some studies of people with cancer suggested that massage therapy reduced symptoms such as pain, nausea, anxiety, depression and fatigue.

Some people worry that massage could cause cancer cells to spread to other parts of their body. Research has not found any evidence of this, but massage therapists will avoid any areas affected by cancer, such as tumour sites or lymph nodes. If you are concerned at all then we suggest you have a chat with your cancer doctor or nurse.

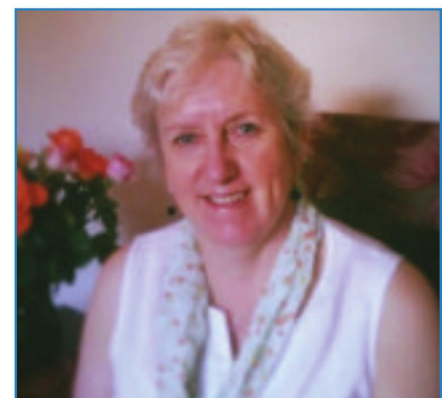

The talk will be given by Sanjula who has been a massage therapist and healer for more than 15 years. She has worked with many people with cancer in the past. She is very sensitive to an individual's specific body needs and works to relax, heal and guide people to let go of stress and emotional patterns held in the body. Through applying pressure in the main areas of stress, she moves the tension through and out of the different channels in the body. She works on the principal that all people are different and stress affects people in different ways.

Another date for your diary is Thursday 10th December when we will be having a craft session, making Christmas decorations. Come and find your creative spirit! Refreshments will be provided – we might even stretch to mince pies!

Due to a generous grant from Macmillan we are currently able to offer free treatments to cancer patients attending our group sessions. This money is limited and so the offer will be available only until the funds are depleted. We are constantly fund-raising and applying for grants to replenish this bursary. If anyone would like to donate or fund raise for this worthy cause then please get in touch with the Centre. We welcome volunteers who can help in any way.

Wishing Well meets weekly on Thursday afternoons from 2.30-4.30 at the Axminster Health and Wellbeing Centre. We provide a safe space to meet, chat, have a drink and relax as well as many interesting talks and workshops.

If you'd like any more information or to be added to our mailing list please contact us on 01297 444951 or email info@axminsterwellbeing.com – or just come along on a Thursday afternoon.

Low self-esteem

IF you suffer from low self-esteem, you may or may not be aware of how far reaching the effects of it are on many areas of your life. If you are in a relationship with someone with low self-esteem, you may also find it has repercussions on a daily basis.

Low self-esteem is considered to be a thinking disorder. Negative thoughts about ourselves are not based on reality but usually prompted by the opinions and responses of significant people in our lives. This can seriously affect attitudes, emotions and behaviour, damaging our quality of life and that of those we live with.

Low self-esteem can be the result of damaging parenting, bullying or abusive adult relationships. Consequences can be many and varied: fear and anxiety about not being good enough, sometimes leading to a constant search for reassurance or becoming a perfectionist; fear of failure which limits any new activity or risk taking; needy behaviour in relationships, either seeking or rejecting recognition and praise; behaving in irrational, negative and self-destructive ways.

If you recognise low self-esteem as something which is negatively impacting on your life and would like help to change this, contact me, Anne Roberts, Counselling South West, on t: 01297 301035 m: 07887 961954 email: info@couplecounsellor.co.uk: www.couplecounsellor.co.uk

Body-Balance Nutrition Elizabeth Bray

Nutrition Facts and Information from Liz at Body-Balance Nutrition:

• WATERCRESS contains more vitamin C than oranges! It also contains 15 essential vitamins and minerals and more calcium than milk. It provides more iron than spinach too, a great tasting option to provide all of these essential nutrients.

• Aspartame is now included instead of sugar in an alarming number of UK sugary soft drinks. Always check the label for these hidden ingredients in the standard version as well as the 'diet' version. The health dangers are widespread and yet widely denied by manufacturers.

• Wheat, dairy & sugar free recipe for Orange Polenta Biscuits

- 1 ½ cups polenta
- 3 ounces coconut oil
- 3 ounces butter
- ½ cup coconut palm sugar
- 1/3 cup wholemeal or rice flour
- 1/3 cup ground almonds
- 2 tbsps finely grated orange zest
- Juice of half an orange
- 2 large eggs

In a food processor combine all ingredients except the eggs, until it resembles coarse meal. Add the eggs until dough comes together.

Preheat oven to 160 degrees. Grease a baking tray. Drop slightly rounded teaspoons on to the tray two inches apart.

Bake for 15 minutes or until golden. Cool for 5 minutes, transfer to a wire rack to cool.

LOOK GOOD FEEL GREAT

5 steps to staying healthy this winter

1. Boost your diet

Eating foods that are high in vitamin C will help keep your immune system strong, so include fruit and vegetables; such as lemons, kiwifruit, capsicum and broccoli in your weekly shop.

If you're struggling to get the recommended two serves of fruit and five serves of vegetables each day, try juicing them. Nutritionist Zoe Bingley-Pullin recommends making juices that consist of two-thirds vegetables and one-third fruit. A blend of carrot, beetroot, spinach and lemon is a stress-busting combination that will boost your immune system.

Ensure your diet also includes plenty of lean meats, fish, poultry, low-fat dairy, legumes, wholegrains, nuts and seeds, and use lots of herbs and spices.

2. Exercise regularly

It's vital to keep your workout regimen up during winter, with a recent study showing that a moderate level of regular exercise has a long-term cumulative effect on immune response.

Regular aerobic exercise, five or more days a week for more than 20 minutes a day, rises above all other lifestyle factors in lowering sick days during the winter cold season.

But don't go overboard. Overly strenuous exercise releases the stress hormone, cortisol, in the body, which can weaken the immune system.

3. Stay connected

Socialising helps strengthen your immune system by keeping you active and reducing your stress levels, so avoid the temptation to rug up on the couch all winter.

Invite friends over for dinner or host a game night, visit local museums and art galleries, wrap up warm and go for a walk in the park with your family or plan a cinema date with your partner.

4. Scrub up

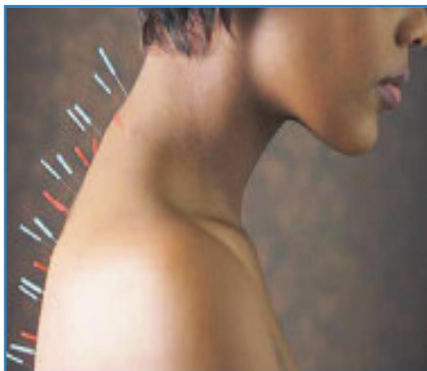

Frequent hand washing is one of the best ways to avoid getting sick and spreading illness as it limits the transfer of bacteria, viruses and other microbes. This is important during winter when we tend to cough and sneeze more frequently. Wet your hands and lather up with soap for 20 seconds to help dislodge germs and rinse well under running water.

5. Sleep well

Lack of sleep can have a serious effect on your immune system, making you more vulnerable to catching colds. Lack of sleep can result in a substantial decrease in the white blood cells that help to fight infection in the body.

Create a relaxing bedtime routine, such as listening to soft music or soaking in a warm bath. Avoid watching TV or using your computer just before bedtime and turn the lights down low an hour before you turn in for the night, as it will boost the release of melatonin in the brain.

Also try to go to bed and get up at the same time every day, even on weekends.

SHARP ACUPUNCTURE CLINICS

HOW Can Acupuncture Help You?

Well this is a question I am often asked. Acupuncture is about rebalancing your energy flow so that nature can work as it should.

But your acupuncture treatment isn't about just needling. It is important that the acupuncturist assesses your pulse and looks at your tongue; this allows the acupuncturist to evaluate patients progress and deciding on the relevance or priority of treatment principles.

Many years ago I had a patient who came in with major problems. She was diabetic and needed to lose weight but after 4 months was not reducing her weight.

We spoke about diet. It was February, she was eating a Healthy diet; salads, salads and more salads. I looked at her tongue and felt her pulse my advise was as follows....

Please have:

1. As many cups of tea or coffee as you like.
2. Lamb, chicken casseroles.
3. Curries, chilli soups.
4. NO SALADS
5. No COLD FOODS
6. No food colder than room temperature.

She asked why? I said her system was not working well because she was always cold. She returned a week later saying,

"My energies are up, I am not cold now but more important I have lost 10 lbs!"

So acupuncture is about looking after the whole person

Bowen Technique

Melanie Philips

Why Your Pain is crying out for a Light Touch

TOUCH is central to our experience of the world; it helps define us. We sense with our bodies the objects we encounter—the couch cradling us, the table colliding with our knees, the breeze fluttering at our cheeks.

Nerves uniquely adapted for sensing a dizzying array of stimuli freckle our skin, sending their impulses racing to our spinal cords and into our brains. Touch orients us to the world; it also attunes us to each other.

When we or another are in pain our first gut reaction and approach is firstly protection or contraction around that pain and then it is care and gentleness. The basic human response to this is a receptiveness to uncoil, open, trust and receive which in turn allows for recovery, repair and healing.

So this explains one of the reasons why and how a light sensitive touch over a hard one is so much more effective when approaching most kinds of pain in the body.

This light touch basically gets to a different part of our nervous system and therefore creates a permanent definition of change in the tissue which also means that the changes we are able to make towards some ones pain and discomfort when performing Bowen will be more long term.

David Lloyd Cabinet Maker

MY NAME is David Lloyd. After training at Rycotewood College in Thame, Oxfordshire, during 1994-95 I worked for small firms until I decided to start my own business.

I have been an independent cabinet maker and joiner since 2003.

From my Dunksell workshop, within the beautiful Blackdown Hills, I deliver mainly to Devon, Somerset and Dorset, but can deliver further a field if required.

What do I make? Well, almost anything in wood! I make free standing and fitted furniture for kitchens, dining rooms, living rooms, bedrooms, studies, bathrooms and even the garden!

Designs are agreed with the client after discussing needs, specifications and any foibles or special features they may require.

Bespoke furniture making permits freedom of design and choice of material to suit all tastes and budgets.

I also undertake bespoke joinery commissions if you need something a little different. Awkward, odd sized or listed building compliant internal / external doors, staircases and windows etc...

I am passionate about using English timber for my commissions as I believe it has more character.

However I will use solid timber from overseas if the job requires it or you would like to use it, for example, using American Black Walnut for kitchen worktops or African Sapele for doors.

I would be happy to see you at my workshop to discuss a future project or to just chat about wood. If you are thinking of visiting my workshop, please ring first to make sure I am available.

Please see my extensive portfolio online: www.davidlloyd.co.uk, give me a ring 01404 891800 or email info@davidlloyd.co.uka

Greenshutters Nurseries & Garden Centre

GREENSHUTTERS Nurseries & Garden Centre is a family run business nestled in the heart of the Somerset countryside. It is open 7 days a week and stocks an extensive range of plants. The Garden Centre has completely changed in the last few years with the layout being completely re-designed. There are new entrances from the road and into the Plant Area and the old-fashioned wooden greenhouse has been restored to its former glory with its bright, white painted wood. Most of the plants are now on tables so you don't have to bend down to look at them and the layout has been designed to make the walk around the plant area enjoyable.

This year Greenshutters Garden Centre is stocking a much larger range of herbaceous perennials and roses, including new and unusual varieties. There is also a new range of quality garden benches dotted among the plants, so you are welcome to wander around the garden centre and take a rest as you go. You can even sit and enjoy the view over Taunton Vale and the Quantocks.

The business also incorporates EVERGREEN-HEDGING.co.uk, one of the largest stockists of evergreen hedging plants in the country. Thousands of plants are grown every year on the nursery from small to large, mature hedging plants; the best sellers being Laurel, Leylandii, Photinia 'Red Robin' and Portugal Laurel. These are delivered locally or nationwide or can be collected from Greenshutters Nurseries and Garden Centre.

Greenshutters is run by Dr Roger Eavis, who bought the nursery in 1998 and the business has grown steadily every year since then. "We pride ourselves on good customer service and advice, good quality plants and I hope we have created a pleasant place to wander and enjoy the plants," says Roger. "We have a great team of staff who are always willing to help and give advice". Greenshutters Nurseries and Garden Centre is well worth a visit.

Eden Garden Fencing and Landscaping

AT EDEN Garden Fencing and Landscaping based in Seaton, Devon we have been building and installing quality Fencing, Gates and Decking, along with Landscaping, for some 15 years. This makes finding a Fencing Contractor simple by providing for all clients' requirements, large and small locally. The timber products side of Landscapers, Eden Garden Developments, offers a friendly, professional, integrated service and the Seaton, Devon base covers a 30 mile radius.

A timely example, given the present gusty conditions, is Garden Fencing, where this can be replaced or repaired, depending upon condition and the budget available. This can be either Close Board, Panel (with or without Trellis), Post and Rail or Picket Fencing. Eden Garden Fencing and Landscaping also supply and fit Gates (see insets).

Whilst we take pride in installing robust and durable fencing products, "cost leadership" is still at the forefront of the business, whilst keeping quality and the principles of design foremost. Much of the work can be done during Autumn and Winter when the ground is less compacted and this time is also perfect for renovating the garden generally. So by Spring many garden improvements can be ready to be enjoyed.

There is now a dedicated Timber Products website, www.edengardenfencing.co.uk, giving examples of the range and quality of workmanship. Additionally, information can be obtained by calling 01297 23596 (mobile 07977 415446) or visiting the general web pages at www.a1-environmental.com

Gordon & Rumsby

HOW this year has flown! In January, Gordon and Rumsby will be 7 years old and I will have been in the business for 13 years – let's hope it's a lucky 13. We are growing slowly and surely with much of our business coming from recommendation, which is the best way. It is still not easy selling property in this glorious part of the south west, however, despite the general press announcements that prices are rising and there is a shortage of stock. We have been lucky with some properties selling quickly (within a month or two) but the majority take longer and sometimes this comes as a great surprise to sellers who have not sold for some years. We work hard to set our clients expectations and help them to understand that any delay in selling is not necessarily a reflection on the appeal of their property. We continue to enthuse about every property we sell, whether it is a bed-sit or a 7 bedroom country house with acreage. Every property is someone's castle! I am writing this towards the end of November and despite the time of year, we are still quite busy with viewings and some new property coming to the market. The usual pattern of seasons for the property market no longer seems to apply with the last 2 years having been busiest during February and October/November. Who knows what next year will bring? As the Festive Season approaches, I would like to take the opportunity to thank all those people that have said lovely things about our company and recommended our services to others. Finally, a very Merry Christmas from all at Gordon and Rumsby.

Merry Christmas from

Colyton Caterpillars

AT CATERPILLARS Childcare we are using sensory experiences to provide the foundations upon which all subsequent knowledge, thought and creativity is based.

Every time a child encounters a sensory stimulus a neuron (brain cell) connects to another neuron establishing new connections in the brain. Signals flow along these complex networks allowing information about emotions, as well as everything we see, hear, taste, touch and smell. Every new sensory experience adds to the network, so going on a simple sensory walk can provide children with lots of opportunities.

At Caterpillars we enjoy lots of teddy bear walks throughout our daily sessions to provide rich sensory experiences.

Our Teddy Bear Walks

- Having a leaf shower
- Balancing on a log
- Looking at patterns on leaves
- Listening to the birds
- Scrunching leaves
- Enjoying the scent of trees and flowers
- Feeling fresh air on your face
- Feeling the texture of bark

The Kingfisher Inn

THANKFULLY a few proper old taverns still exist – and The Kingfisher in Colyton is among the very best of them.

The visitor looking for an unspoilt, traditional Devon pub where the hospitality is hearty need look no further than this 16th Century inn, easily found in the centre of the town. It's exactly like an old pub should be – traditional roasts on Sundays, meat raffles in the bar every Saturday, CAMRA-rated honest local ales, a beautiful beer garden and a rare place where you can still play skittles, darts and crib.

The Kingfisher is also the friendly home to great British pub grub – fish and chips that are said to be the best in the area, steak and kidney pie, chicken and leek pie, whitebait, stuffed mushrooms, baked salmon, sirloin steak, scampi, egg and chips and raspberry and apple pie are among the choices that are all freshly-homemade and come in large portions.

It is a popular spot with walkers and rave reviews of the welcome at The Kingfisher have come from as far as California. Typical is the thumbs-up from a recent visitor from Birmingham, who wrote: "It's been a long time since we enjoyed a simple, well-cooked pub meal and this pub does the job. We had scampi, chips, peas and salad and ham, egg, chips and peas and our meals were thoroughly enjoyable. The food was well presented – no attempts to be a gastropub or anything fancy, just good, wholesome pub grub. We cleared our plates and we just wish that this pub was our local! We will definitely be back."

A great find, a little Devon treasure and highly-recommended by all its patrons.

Don't miss Colyton Christmas Fayre. Wednesday, December 2nd 4pm~8pm

Icing Occasions

PROFESSIONAL cake makers Icing Occasions has opened a new kitchen and shop at the Wheeler's Yard business park in Colyton.

Having previously had a shop in Honiton, owner Cathryn Andrews moved to Colyton a year ago and has been baking cakes from home since, but with her new premises, she'll now have plenty of space to expand the business.

As well as continuing to offer her beautifully-decorated, bespoke cakes for special occasions and a buffet catering service, Cathryn will be offering balloons, party decorations and more, making her new premises a "one stop shop" for weddings and parties.

The shop also stocks a vast range of cake decorating equipment, and will be hiring out cake stands and tins for budding bakers. There will also be a baking book "library", from which customers will be able to borrow baking books for a donation to Cathryn's chosen charity, the Hughes Syndrome Foundation.

Cathryn said she wanted to open a shop in Colyton because "there's nothing like it in the local area", and her business has been met with positive response from residents.

She is now keen to get the local community as involved as possible and will be opening up her kitchen for children's "bake-off" birthday parties, an after school club and sugar craft and modeling workshops in the New Year. Cathryn is also keen to involve local groups such as the WI and schools.

"I want to make cooking fun, especially for children, because if it's not fun they won't be interested in it."

"I hope to offer something a bit different to everyone else and attract people from the wider area to Colyton."

Cathryn, who was a regional finalist for the 2015 Wedding Industry Awards and nominated for the 5 Star Service Wedding Awards, is also hoping to host a wedding fair at her new premises next year.

The new shop is currently open 3pm to 8pm Monday to Friday, 7am to 4pm on Saturdays and 10am to 4pm on Sundays.

The Gerrard Arms

Enjoy a friendly, warm atmosphere, at The Gerrard Arms

THE Gerrard Arms is a small, friendly pub in the centre of the town of Colyton. It dates back to 1506 and is one of the oldest coaching inns in town, remaining largely unchanged until 1914 when the building caught fire and the original thatched roof was lost. Later, the stables were sold off, and after several refits the pub settled into its current configuration, at the time as a Charrington House.

Once visited by none other than Lawrence of Arabia (so folklore has it), the Gerrard Arms now retains the traditional feel of a pleasant country pub, whilst offering a selection of beverages only possible in a Free-house.

Today Dave and Kaz welcome you to their freehouse to enjoy a friendly, warm atmosphere, local real ales, and a natter with the locals.

Intuitive Interiors

INTUITIVE INTERIORS started this year in May and as a new business is ever evolving into different areas of the market, Sue has been in the building industry for almost a decade and has gained the knowledge and insight for what works when it comes to the key finishes of a room or a home.

Intuitive Interiors offers bespoke packages based on what the client requires. This can range from a basic consultation & advice, helping to achieve the desired look, preparing floor plans and drawings, developed designs and sample boards, to project assistance and/or to completion.

Intuitive Interiors' style is 'Luxury in Simplicity' using neutral base shades within the theme giving the simplicity and then really developing the luxury through the layers and soft furnishings, sometimes bringing in deep rich colour to accent, in a variety of forms. The aim is to achieve a room interior that has style, comfort, depth and longevity in its design.

'It is imperative to Intuitive Interiors that the client achieves the room of their dreams, not the room of someone else's dreams'

Whatever level the client requires of our services, I work closely on client briefs, really examining all key elements and features of the client's requirements. I take into consideration the client as a person, their lifestyle, hobbies, what they enjoy and how they use the room/s and my goal is always to see this coming out through the design and finished product, so that the client is really left with a room that totally fits them.

Consulting and assisting in preparing your home for sale on the open market is also something Intuitive Interiors offers, really helping you to maximise your homes potential ready for buyers and to help you achieve getting an offer close to your market price when selling your home.

Not sure where to start on changing a room/s interior? Have you just finished a room and its just not quite hit the mark? Fed up with getting it wrong? Call Sue at Intuitive Interiors for help.

Munchkins

Come and visit Munchkin's ponies

MUNCHKINS ponies will be in market square for the Colyton Christmas Fayre on Wednesday, December 2nd from 4pm-8pm.

Set in the beautiful countryside in East Devon, Munchkins Miniature Shetland Rescue was set up in June 2014 and achieved charity status in February 2015.

Miniature Shetlands are little ponies with huge personalities who are often abused and misunderstood.

Many Shetlands are bought as a companion or simply to be cute. They often fall into the wrong hands and can suffer neglect and abuse by people who do not know how to care for them. These ponies often do not get the handling and treatment they need, becoming labelled as naughty or wilful and can develop bad habits. Many are indiscriminately bred and are simply overbred ending up at sales and going to the meat man. We offer a home for miniature Shetlands in genuine need and provide all the necessary attention plus an extra bit of TLC.

At present, Munchkins is run from home. We have 5 acres of paddocks. We have stabling for the horses and a barn for the Munchkins to share in winter, though they prefer to live out despite the bad weather!

We would love you to come and visit, but by appointment only, so please give us a ring if you would like to pop in to meet the Munchkins and have a cup of tea and a chat.

Merry Christmas!

Have you seen the signs?

Having had another record year, we realise at John Wood, the importance of your home especially over the Christmas and New Year period, so if your thoughts have turned, whilst enjoying your turkey or mulled wine, to a new home in 2016, we are here to help. We are delighted to support the late night shopping on Wednesday 2nd December, so please feel free to call in and have a chat about any property matters, or just have an update on the present market conditions.

We are assisting Rotary again this year and have the charity post box in our office on Wednesday 2nd December, for the delivery of Christmas cards, in Axmouth, Beer, Colyford, Colyton and Seaton. There is a charge of only 30p to post a card, with all proceeds going to charity.

We wish all our Vendors, past and present, our applicants, our Landlords and Tenants, all the very best for supporting us once again over the past year. A Very Merry Christmas and Happy New Year from us all at John Wood & Co.

Colcombe Castle

THE 500-year-old Colcombe Castle is a paradise for those seeking the unspoilt, traditional pleasures of a classic English pub – especially on Friday and Saturday nights when The Colcombe Scufflers tune up and play.

Anyone can join in with the Scufflers, the weekends are open-mike nights when old friends and strangers are both welcome to break into song. You can bring your own guitar, or simply borrow one of those available at the pub.

Better still, have a go on the old-style skiffle instruments – the tea chest bass or washboard – as the whole pub launches into a singalong.

It's not just the regular beers – Otter Ale, Otter Bitter and Dartmoor Legend – that won The Colcombe Castle whatpub.com's vote as 'friendly and welcoming', it's the old-style, no-fuss of it.

That means good, simple, value-for-money fare – sandwiches that don't cost an arm and a leg, pasties, sausages and sausage rolls with chips, a variety of jacket potatoes and all of those other traditional pub meals that don't need French as a second language to understand; steak and kidney pudding, cod and chips, ham egg and chips, scampi, vegetarian tart and chicken and bacon melt – hearty, filling and all under a tenner.

And there's a great roast here every Sunday. It's a real find for those who want their pubs to be pubs.

Honiton Christmas Carnival will start from 5.30pm at the west of Honiton High Street on Saturday, December 5th 2015. Come and see the last carnival of the year!

THE Christmas Carnival on Saturday, December 5th is a just for fun event so there's no judging involved as it's the final carnival of the season in East Devon. It's a chance for the entries to let their hair down and have a good time with a Christmas theme. The round table will be leading the procession, which starts at 5.30pm prompt from Ottery Moor Lane and takes its usual route along the High Street. There will be several Father Christmas lookalikes and snow is guaranteed to fall somewhere along the route! Also, look out for Snow White and her gang following the Carnival Queen float. We hope young and old will come out and support the carnival and have fun getting into the Christmas spirit!

Join us for Christmas Carols and lighting of the Christmas tree on Friday, December 4th 2015 at St. Paul's Church, High Street. 5.30pm HONITON'S Christmas streetlights are now up and the town is starting to look festive. The Christmas trees for the shops will be erected on Sunday, November 29th, and the large Christmas tree by the Church will be switched on by the Mayor after the Carol Service on Friday, December 4th which starts at 5.30pm.

It is thanks to Honiton Chamber of Commerce who have been fundraising all year to meet the extensive costs for Christmas lights. Many local businesses have generously donated to make this possible, as well as Honiton Lions, Honiton Community College and the Battishorne Trust. What we need now is for locals to show their support for the town by shopping locally for Christmas. It is a proven fact that for every £1 spent locally, 50p - 70p goes back into the local community - so let's help Honiton thrive in 2016.

THE PAPER SHOP

HONITON'S much loved newsagents The Paper Shop has scooped a major award, winning the National News Retailer of the Year.

The Paper Shop beat off competition from Ireland, Scotland, Wales and England to win the prestigious award, but the success didn't stop there. Danny Cramer, one of the delivery drivers, won the First Merit Delivery Award as well. The Paper Shop won the regional award in May and therefore was automatically put through to the finals.

Bridget McNulty and Duncan Finlayson have run The Paper Shop in New Street since 2002 and were given the award by the National Federation of Retail Newsagents. The duo were runners up in the event last year said this award came as a complete shock.

The Paper Shop sells around 1,500 national and local newspapers every day, seven days a week, with an army of 43 paper boys and girls, four drivers delivering to remote villages within a 20-mile radius. Duncan and Bridget have also thanked shop supervisor Emily Fensome, who has been praised for helping to hold the whole operation together.

ACCESS ELECTRIC BIKES

The Next Big Thing

A NEW SPORT is emerging and is expected to be "The Next Big Thing". E-performance biking is described having the physical activity of mountain biking with the dynamic of a motor. It is between mountain biking and motor cross –but quieter, healthier, cleaner and more environmentally friendly and above all awesome.

Suppliers are rushing to supply the demand. Raleigh UK are importing a range of Haibikes produced by their parent company. Priced at between £13,000 (Yes! 13) and £1,895, riding them is not for the faint hearted either. The machines certainly have the strength and agility to get over rough terrain at speed.

If riding over very rough rocky ground is your sport the Full FatSix will suit you. This is a full suspension mountain bike with 250 watt motor and 4" tyres priced at £3500.

All the Haibikes sold in the UK are designed to be fully road legal. The Fate of Throttles.

But the law has not been so kind the rider who needs the support of a throttle.

Although the UK Government say that they are willing to have a Twist & Go throttle on an electric bike without it being classified as a moped, the way the law has been framed is making it virtually impossible to import suitable electric bikes. All is being done in the name of European harmonisation.

As of Friday January 1st 2016, only electric bikes bought before that date with Twist & Go throttles are definitely legal to use on the road..

WITH the nights drawing in, the festive season is truly upon us and Crewkerne will have copious amounts of Christmas Spirit on Friday, November 27th with their annual light switch-on event! Crewkerne Christmas Committee predicts a heaving town centre for the annual Lighting Up event, and is encouraging people to arrive early.

The craft fair in Victoria Hall will be open from 5.30pm, and with such large crowds predicted pop down early so to avoid disappointment.

The charity stalls in Falkland Square will be offering you the chance to win prizes on tombola and other similar activities so be sure not to miss out on all the festive fun and support their efforts at the same time.

Don't forget to visit the Library, which will be running a children's treasure hunt and quiz.

The museum shop will also open for the sale of Christmas goodies and be sure to look in the window at their beautiful Christmas snow scene to really get you in a jovial mood.

Along with these events, many shops and businesses will be open for longer than usual. Don't miss George Shopping Centre and Church Street.

If you need something to eat, then drop into one of the town cafes or bars, have a hog roast at Barrett Brothers, enjoy roast chestnuts and bacon butties in Falkland Square provided by the Scouts or a cup of tea and a piece of cake courtesy of Crewkerne Churches Together in Victoria Hall.

Background music will be provided throughout the evening in Market Square by Steve Carpenter, and Phoenix Brass will play in Falkland Square from 6pm.

CUDOS will lead the carol singing, and judging of the children's Christmas Hat Competition will take place in Market Square at 6pm. Entry is free and open to children in two age categories: 0-3 years; and 4-8 years. Just turn up on the night wearing your creation. The theme this year is 'Christmas Sports World'

Cup'. There will be prizes for children but we are also encouraging everyone, whatever age, to wear a hat of their own design just for fun!

As usual, the highlight of the evening will be at 7pm when Santa arrives on his sleigh, escorted by the Merriott Majorettes, to help the mayor and town crier turn on the Christmas lights.

Santa will then be in his grotto in the Town Hall from 7.15pm to hear your Christmas wishes.

Market Street will be closed to traffic from 6.45pm to 7.30pm, so it will not be possible to drive through the town centre between these times. This is to ensure public safety during the arrival of Santa and whilst the lights are switched on. Diversion routes will be signed.

Bilbys Coffee shop

CELEBRATING 13 years of service to the people of Crewkerne and its visitors, Bilbys in Market Street is a friendly place to dine for breakfast, lunch or afternoon tea. Its central location and easy access makes it's a great meeting place for friends wanting a chat over a cuppa and perhaps a slice of delicious home-made cake or shortbread of which there is a wide range to choose from.

Owned by husband and wife team Tris and Jane Pinkney and located in a listed building, formerly the Red Lion Hotel, Bilbys Crewkerne is run by Jane and retains many original features such as the fire place and decorative floor tiles, stained glass windows and ceramics in the porchway. There are also blow up photographs of historical views on the walls, daily newspapers and a notice-board of local events, all adding to the atmosphere of your dining experience.

The food at Bilbys is all made on the premises to a very high standard using the best ingredients, sourced locally. The cakes are made by Jane in Crewkerne, eat in or takeaway. There are no GM products and special dietary requirements can be accommodated, there are some gluten free items on the menu already. With a menu of full breakfasts, including optional black pudding, light bites such as toasted sandwiches and baguettes (the brie, cranberry and rocket special toastie was to die for), jacket potatoes with basic or more imaginative fillings such as garlic mushrooms or chick pea and coriander. Served with a side salad which includes delicious homemade coleslaw, they are a meal in themselves but there are also things like cauliflower cheese or smokies and casseroles as part of the main menu or on the daily special board. Cream teas with home-made scones or a slice of cake with cream or custard (the Battenburg was light moist, not overly sweet and totally delicious) or perhaps an icecream sundae for the sweet tooth, all washed down with a wide selection of teas, (ceramic teapots that pour not dribble) milk shakes or soft drinks.

Nothing on the menu is over £8 and they still work on a cash only basis to help keep the costs down. Bilbys has a five star hygiene rating.

Half portions of all the food can be served for children (no chips there) and the wheelchair friendly access, high chairs and toys all make it a family friendly environment. There is a separate dining room which can seat up to 24 and is often hired out for seminars, meetings or private parties.

Opening hours are 9am-5pm Monday to Saturday.

Jane and Tris would like to thank all their customers from the last 13 years and especially their excellent team of staff who work very hard to create a warm and friendly atmosphere.

BEER'S ANNUAL LATE NIGHT SHOPPING EVENT AND CHRISTMAS MARKET

Beer's annual late night shopping event and Christmas market will have a very festive feel this year.

The evening's festivities will get underway at 5pm when the school children will be singing Christmas carols in St Michael's Church.

Father Christmas is always a regular visitor - and has even arrived by Rolls Royce in the past - but on Friday, December 11th Seaton Majorettes will be leading him down Fore Street with his reindeer.

Father Christmas will be dropped off at the Mariners Hall so that he can turn on the Christmas lights at 6pm. He will then make his way to the grotto in the Congregational Hall - and hand out gifts to the children.

The reindeer will remain at the Mariners Hall where the children and anyone else can see them, as the Majorettes will carry on down Fore Street.

Why not spend the evening strolling through the traditional craft stalls in search of handmade gifts and culinary treats, or simply enjoy a glass of mulled wine whilst listening to carollers?

As in the past, local shops will be open and serving drinks and nibbles, while the Mariners Hall committee have organised a Christmas market with a wide variety of stalls. There will be jewellery, pottery, wooden presents, cards, crackers, candles, knitted garments, local pictures, glassware, and lots more!

The Mariners committee will serve mulled wine and hot dogs so come on in between 6pm and 9pm.

Rock Villa

ROCK Villa Off License are Sellers of local ales, beers, ciders and wines, plus big brand name beer and cider, wines & spirits, honey, preserves, soft drinks, ice cream & confectionary. Take away teas and coffees. Also DVD rental.

The perfect place to stock-up on Christmas goodies! Open during late night Christmas shopping, so come and share the magic with us.

Woozies Deli

WOOZIES Deli provides fresh and frozen vegetables, fruit, a variety of savoury pasties, pies and flans, local cheeses, Mediterranean sundried tomatoes and olives, preserves, pickles and jams and pre-packed uncooked and cooked meat, local eggs, fresh local bread, homemade treacle tarts and apple pies - perfect for Christmas and New Year festivities!

Woozies Deli will be open during late night Christmas shopping, so why not pop in and see the many gift ideas available at great prices!

Michelle Hague - Clinical Hypnotherapy

Christmas is coming, whether you like it or not

Christmas is coming
Are you getting fat?
One too many mince pies
To much of this and that,
Like a glass of wine or two
Before the TV sat while not taking any exercise
Then fat is where you're at.

Michelle the hypnotherapist
Can do something for you.
She's worked with many people now and knows a thing or two.

She doesn't promise magic or gimmicks games or tricks
But helps you to take control, in ways that make it stick
So if you want a shapely bod or change some other thing,
Then just pick up your telephone and give Michelle a ring.

THE Manor House Care Home is run as a small family home with the emphasis on the provision of quality individual care in a comfortable, safe and cheerful environment. The organisation and management of the home are the means to achieve that end.

The Manor Houses latest Care Quality Commission inspection report was rated as a 3 Star or Excellent Care Service. The Manor House is a private residential care home which strives to provide the highest standard of care and permanent accommodation for 15 elderly individuals.

At The Manor House it is their aim to provide individual care in a comfortable, safe and cheerful environment where residents' individuality, privacy, dignity and freedom are respected.

PAPERCHAIN is an independent card and gift shop, which has been well established in Seaton for over 20 years. In March 2014 the business was taken on by Emma and Stephen Grigg who have made some subtle changes to improve the look and feel of the premises without wanting to make wholesale changes to what was already a successful and well run shop. Our cards come in a range of prices to meet everyone's budgets.

Please come and visit us to see our vast array of Christmas cards, which includes boxes of multipack cards along with your usual title cards for those special people at Christmas. A Swinging Christmas Evening with Peter Gill and Friends

FOR THE perfect kick start to the festive period 'A Swinging Christmas Evening' is always the answer!

Popular entertainer, boogie woogie/jazz pianist and vocalist Peter Gill, known not just for being the Musical Director for British entertainment legend Anita Harris (with whom he has just released a single), but also for his outstanding performances as rock n roll great Jerry Lee Lewis in theatre shows Rock n Roll Paradise and The Jerry Lee Lewis Story, will put everyone in the Christmas mood with this hugely enjoyable evening.

Appearing on stage with his swing band friends, the show is a charming, eclectic mix of jazz standards and Christmas gems such as 'White Christmas', 'Santa Claus Is Comin To Town', 'Baby It's Cold Outside', 'Winter Wonderland' and 'Mr Bojangles'.

For fans of sublime, cool swing, boogie and blues interlaced with friendly and witty banter, this is a show not to be missed. Amongst those joining Peter on stage will be nationally acclaimed performers Kim Cypher (saxophones), Eddie McManus (bass), Michael Croshaw (guitar) and Mike Cypher (drums).

Peter Gill

Virtuoso violinist returns to Sidmouth

THE YOUNG and extremely talented violinist, Emmanuel Bach, will be returning to Sidmouth on Saturday, November 28th to play the wonderful Tchaikovsky Violin Concerto with the Isca Ensemble conducted by Roger Hendy at the Parish Church commencing at 7.30p.m. Sponsored by the Joanna Leach Foundation and supported by local Sidmouth businesses, proceeds of the concert will be directed to Hospiscare.

Through the initiatives of players in the orchestra and its MD, well over £4000 has already been made this year.

Such was the response to the fabulous recital Emmanuel gave in Sidmouth in April this year, that a special professionally produced CD has been produced and will be on sale at future Isca concerts with proceeds being directed to Hospiscare. The CD features pieces by Tartini, Beethoven, Grieg, Debussy and 'Carmen Fantasie' (arr. Waxman). Emmanuel will also feature in two other performances in Sidmouth Parish Church next year (Saturday, February 27th and Saturday, April 30th).

The rest of the programme on November 28th contains two other wonderful classical works - the beautifully scored 'Valse Triste' by Sibelius and the magnificent 'Eroica' Symphony by Beethoven.

Tickets are now available for the concert from Paragon Books, Sidmouth (01395 514516), the Isca Ensemble website www.iscaensemble.org.uk or at the door.

Andy Fairweather Low at Square and Compass

ANDY FAIRWEATHER LOW, one of the world's most respected musicians, rose to prominence in the 1960s as the front man and guitarist for chart topping teen idol band Amen Corner. His distinctive vocals were the perfect lead for the group. Amen Corner scored six memorable hits between 1967 and 1969 with '(If Paradise is) Half As Nice' reaching number 1 in January 1969. 'Wide Eyed & Legless' released late in 1975 became another solo Top 10 hit in the UK and a major International hit record.

In the early nineties, Andy joined Eric Clapton's band with which he stayed until 2003 touring and recording the Unplugged, 'From the Cradle', 'Pilgrim', 'Riding with the King', 'Reptile' 'One More Car One More Rider', 'Me & Mr. Johnson' and 'Back Home' albums with him. Andy was also a regular player with George Harrison, appearing on his Live in Japan album.

One of Fairweather Low's longest musical relationships, however, has been as musical director with Roger Waters. The two have worked together since Waters' 'Pros and Cons of Hitchhiking' tour of America in 1985.

Andy Fairweather Low & The Low Riders play at The Barn at Square+Compass, Windmill Hill, Nr Ilminster, Somerset. TA19 9NX on Saturday, November 28th. Doors 8pm, music from 9pm.

Tickets are £20 in advance or £24 on the door, available from the venue, by calling 01823 480467, or from www.mojopromo.co.uk.

Warehouse Theatre presents The Railway Children

ILMINSTER'S Warehouse Theatre presents The Railway Children in December.
 Directed by Alison Haines, and with Musical Director Ros Broad, this a superb adaptation for the musical stage of E Nesbit's quintessentially English classic.

An idyllic Edwardian family Christmas is interrupted by a knock at the door and a family's life is changed forever. Father is wrongfully arrested and Mother and the three children, Roberta (Bobbie), Peter, and Phyllis, are forced to move to the country.

Discovering a railway near their new house is just the beginning of a series of adventures over one long summer.

The Railway Children will be performed at Ilminster Warehouse Theatre from December 10th-12th and 17th-19th at 7.30pm nightly, plus 2.30pm matinees on the 12th and 19th.

Music and mince pies

ITS CHEESE SCONES are legendary but the Arts Centre serves a pretty irresistible mince pie too, as visitors to Ilminster's Victorian Evening will find out.

As part of the festivities, the Arts Centre is inviting visitors to come along and savour delicious homemade mince pies and warming mulled wine after watching the Christmas lights switch-on. The sociable ambience of the Meeting House is the ideal place to rendezvous with friends and family after you've 'done the town', as well as browse and buy unique, handmade Christmas gifts from the Craft Shop, and enjoy a performance of beautiful festive music provided by the talented Farey Family singers.

There will be fine art to admire in the Gallery, courtesy of the Neroche Artists, and the Gallery Café will also open for tea, coffee and cakes so there will be a good choice of refreshments available for those who are mince pie and mulled wine averse.

Victorian Evening is one of the most eagerly anticipated dates on the Ilminster town calendar - come enjoy the festive fun at the Arts Centre. Entry is free!

Victorian Evening at the Arts Centre takes place on Friday, November 27th from 6pm. Admission is free.

2016 SsangYong Turismo now available

OFFERING family and business users a car to transport seven adults in comfort together with their luggage, the SsangYong Turismo is almost without rival.

At over 5 metres long and with a 3 metre wheelbase, the car is larger than a standard sized MPV people carrier, and is now further enhanced for 2016 with the addition of an upgraded 2.2 litre Euro 6 diesel engine. The Turismo also now offers the choice of a 6-speed manual transmission or new Mercedes-Benz 7-speed automatic.

Diesel power

The newly developed e-XDi220 diesel engine meets the demand for a more powerful performance and lower CO2 emissions at the same time. Maximum power is increased to 178ps and torque to 400Nm – up by 15% and 11% respectively over the previous Euro 5 diesel 2.0 litre engine. Maximum torque is delivered from a low of 1,400rpm and maintained through a wide range up to 2,800rpm for smooth, progressive driving from the start.

Big strides have also been made with CO2 emissions which have been reduced to 189g/km, down from 199g/km on the previous 4x2 manual transmission model, while fuel economy is also improved and now up to 39.2 mpg (Combined cycle) compared with 37.2mpg over the model it replaces.

"Sales of Turismo are already 46% up this year compared with the whole of 2014," says Paul Williams, CEO of SsangYong Motor UK, "which clearly demonstrates that even more people are recognising the amazing value this car offers. With the power upgrade and new 7-speed Mercedes-Benz gearbox for 2016, Turismo delivers even greater levels of refinement and value."

Interior space

Designed to appeal as family, leisure and business transportation, the new car blends multi-role flexibility with great ride comfort and the appointments and equipment levels of a luxury saloon.

Thanks to its 3,000mm wheelbase, the car provides a huge interior space where seven adults can travel in supreme comfort with their luggage loaded in the back, without having to compromise on passenger accommodation. There are three rows of seats as well as a large load space which can be further increased by removing the third row completely. This gives a massive load carrying capability of between 875 litres with seven adults seated, through to two adults and 3,146 litres of load space.

Turismo ELX with 4x4

While rear wheel drive features on the SE and EX, the top of the range ELX includes selectable 4x4 with low ratio as standard. This makes the Turismo ELX a car you can rely on, no matter what the winter throws at you, and is especially safe and practical whether towing a caravan, horsebox or boat trailer, or when driving on snow and ice. As with other Turismo models the ELX has an impressive 2 tonne towing capability.

Ride & handling

The new Turismo utilises double wishbone front suspension and rear independent multi-link suspension for executive saloon style ride quality. This set-up offers a quiet and comfortable driving environment with firm body control, a flat ride and optimum stability regardless of the road conditions.

The new 2016 Turismo 2.2 is now available through SsangYong dealers.

New DS 4 & DS 4 Crossback on sale now

OFFICIALLY 'on sale' in the UK from the start of this month (November 2015), New DS 4 and DS 4 Crossback represent an exciting new chapter in the DS Automobiles story. With two distinct body styles and a new front end, both versions offer design that embodies the spirit of avant-garde, plus more advanced technology and refinement in every detail.

Following a global public premiere at the Frankfurt Motor Show in September, New DS 4 and DS 4 Crossback are now 'on sale' in the UK.

Sporting signature DS Automobiles design features, such as the 'DS Wings' front end, new DS branding, new personalisation options, new trim levels and the latest Euro 6 engines, New DS 4 and DS 4 Crossback offer more choice for customers to adapt their car to suit their personality and lifestyle.

New DS 4 also gains a major new feature as the first DS – and the first vehicle in the PSA Group – to offer Apple CarPlay™.

New DS 4 and DS 4 Crossback are offered with six refined and efficient engines in total, including the award-winning 3-cylinder turbo petrol PureTech 130. A new high-performance THP 210 petrol engine is exclusively available in New DS 4 (excludes Crossback). Three efficient Euro 6 Blue HDi diesel engines are also specified, including a BlueHdi 180 with up to 50Nm more torque than its main competitors.

New DS 4 is priced from £19,495 (excludes Crossback). The New DS 4 Crossback range starts at £21,745.

Seaton claim Sidmouth cup scalp

Top spots for Millwey Rise, Axminster Reserves and Hawkchurch

SW Peninsula League D1 (E)

AFTER a Saturday afternoon off, AXMINSTER TOWN return to action next weekend with the visit by BOVEY TRACEY (3pm ko).

EXWICK VILLA RES 2 BEER ALBION 1

D&E Premier Division
BEER Albion travelled to Exwick on Saturday in desperate need of league points but were just pipped 2-1 in a close match.

Last week the Fishermen had been well beaten by Exwick at the Furzebrake, but this was a much improved performance and they can count themselves unlucky not to have shared the points.

Beer received an early blow in the 10th minute keeper Steve Jones was forced off after injuring a finger. Full back Shaun Denslow took over between the sticks and performed well.

Despite this set-back, Beer took the lead through Callum Gribble but the home side equalised before half time and then grabbed the winner in the second half.

Next Saturday, The Fishermen entertain Heavitree United in a Premier Division fixture at the Furzebrake. Kick off is 2.15pm and match sponsor is Colebrooke Guest House, Beer.

SAMPFORD PEVERELL 0

AXMINSTER TOWN RES 1

Division 4

AXMINSTER got off to a great start with a goal in the fourth minute when a defender deflected a shot from Nathan Warren into his own goal.

The Tigers went in search of more goals but a mixture of poor finishing and a number of fine saves kept the score to 1-0 at the break.

With the pitch cutting up badly both sides struggled to play any quality football but this still didn't prevent both sides from creating chances as both goalkeepers produced a number of good saves.

The Tigers took a grip on the game for the last 20 minutes but failed to turn their superiority into goals against a stubborn Sampford defence.

BEER RES 1 STARCROSS GENERALS 1

Division Five

THIS result was probably a fair reflection of a very tight game.

The Generals had more of the possession and the Fishermen had to defend desperately at times but Beer had the more clear-cut chances and will be disappointed with their finishing on the day.

The Fishermen got off to a great start taking the lead on 5 minutes when a long clearance from keeper Mike Westlake was completely misjudged by the visitors' defence and Simon Smith took advantage to slot the ball home.

Starcross came back strongly and on 20 minutes Beer were lucky not to concede a penalty when a handball was adjudged to be just outside the box.

From the resulting free kick, Ottery was called into action with a double save to rescue his team.

Starcross's pressure eventually told in the 28th minute when Stefan Cottam equalised from close range.

Beer responded well and came close to scoring on a couple of occasions before the break with an overhead kick from Adam Brewer whistling over the bar and Tom Neale missing the target from eight yards.

On 67 minutes Smith missed the target from close range after a fine passing move and 4four minutes later Brewer's shot went just wide after another fine move.

There were some outstanding performances for Beer from centre back Jack Prior keeper Westlake and full backs Aaron Wain and Todd Lewendon.

EAST BUDLEIGH RES 3

MILLWEY RISE 7

Division Six

DESPITE creating numerous chances it took Millwey Rise until the 42nd minute for the free-scoring Levi Hoole to break the deadlock writes Dick Sturch.

A couple of minutes later Rise keeper Nathan Hoole made an outstanding triple save to maintain their single goal advantage when a Budleigh equaliser seemed certain.

In the first five minutes of the second half Hoole scored two more, with a Nathan Wormsley goal squeezed in between, to give Millwey a four-goal advantage.

The hosts pulled a goal back before one of their defenders, under pressure from Mark Pike, put the ball into his own net.

Hoole then scored two more to bring his season's tally to 32. Budleigh then bagged a couple of late consolation.

Considering Millwey had five regulars absent through injury and unavailability, the outcome was well deserved, although as usual they did at times make things difficult for themselves.

Zak Meaker and Shane Featherstone covered a lot of ground in the midfield breaking up the home side's attacks, but on many occasions their forwards were given far too much room in the final quarter of the pitch.

This in turn created a lot of unnecessary pressure on the Millwey goal where Nathan Hoole was again impressive.

AXMINSTER TOWN 3RDS 5

TEDBURN ST MARY RES 0

Division 9

THE Tigers, with Harry Day in MoM form, opened their account in the 17th minute with a superbly taken goal by Reece Best and Brad Lee Miller added a second just before half-time.

The second half saw brought the goal of the game a 40-yard special from Dom Tait followed by further goals from Ben Vine and JP Harris.

MILLWEY RISE RES 3 FENITON 3RDS 1

Division Nine

THIS was a hard fought match, on a heavy pitch with a strong wind making play even more difficult.

Joel Seward scored twice and Player-Manager Dan Murnane's in-off effort added to the tally.

Feniton did get the ball into the net, but the final outcome was the result of a good all round team display from Millwey.

D&E round-up

with Collin Goodwin

ON another day of topsy-turvy cup and league results SEATON TOWN stole the honours by knocking South West Peninsular League SIDMOUTH TOWN out of the Throgmorton Devon Premier cup. Seaton won 2-1 with goals from Josh French and James Hill.

After waiting over a month to get their first round abandoned tie with HEAVITREE UNITED re-played ELMORE finally got the go-ahead and stormed to a 6-0 triumph against their Premier rivals.

Jordan Copp with a brace, Ross Seatherton, Will Babb, Matt Atkins and Lee Woodman found the Heavies net and the eagles will now be away to Crediton next week.

FENITON manager Ben Ede went on a second half goalscoring spree with all five to plunder a 5-2 win at NEWTOWN.

The home team, who had gone top after being awarded three points for an unplayed fixture, were all over Feniton in the first half to lead 2-0, but then Ede stepped in.

SIDBURY UNITED who are struggling to raise a team shocked second from top HONITON TOWN 2-0. Jamie Bayliss in his first match back after injury and Danny Green scored their goals.

CLYST VALLEY defeated WILAND ROVERS 1-0 with Ben Holman scoring their only goal, EXWICK VILLA edged BEER ALBION 2-1 Mitch Ward and Nathan Devereux after the fishermen took the lead, while

In the first division SIDMOUTH TOWN RES were 5-2 winners against WITHERIDGE RES.

CHULMLEIGH are up to third in Division Two after an 8-2 blitz against HEMYOCK, but they will have to go some to keep up with leaders HENRY'S CRONIES who destroyed CULM UNITED 7-1.

LAPFORD recovered from a nightmare first half to cement their position as 3rd Division leaders beating the UNIVERSITY 4-1. Dom Stapleton netted twice.

NEWTON POPPLEFORD surprised CHERITON FITZPAINE 5-2, Alex McDonald had both Cheriton goals.

FENITON stay top of Division Five after seeing off KENTISBEARE 5-1. Louie Dyer 2, Sam Down, Jonathan French and an own goal won it for Fenney.

OTTERTON share the lead following their 4-0 win over AWLISCOMBE UTD, Lee Mitchell pocketed a brace.

At the Davey Fort LYME REGIS RESERVES and ELMORE RESERVES shared six goals and the Division Seven points. Stefan Taylor, Alfie Jaques and skipper Alex Rowe netted for the Seaside with Dave Mariner (2) and Ryan Rowe on target for the Eagles.

The UNIVERSITY won their Firewatch Devon Senior cup-tie against UPTOTTERY 7-6 on pens after the pair shared an extra time 2-2 score line.

In the A & S Paving Devon Intermediate cup, WHIPTON & PINHOE won 2-1 at OTTERY ST MARY, and SIDMOUTH 3RDS were victorious at STOKE HILL UTD by just a single goal.

Eggle back with a bang

Minehead B 0 Chard A 8

CAPTAIN Gareth Eggle returned from injury to lead Chard 2nd XI to this emphatic victory with a hat-trick amidst a strong performance from the entire team.

Chard started the match with a spell of possession hockey which set the pattern for much of their play, early pressure keeping the home side's attacking efforts to a minimum.

While Callum Baillie in the Chard goal was mostly a spectator, with the game still goalless after the first quarter hour, he made a vital save to prevent Minehead taking the lead from a break away and a rare loss of concentration in Chard's defence.

Nick Parkinson came on as a substitute on the right wing and was in the right place to score from close range for Chard's first. Shortly after Eggle got his first when Minehead only partially cleared from a penalty corner and the ball was recycled back into the D where Eggle swept it high into the net.

Although Minehead mustered a couple of penalty corners in response, any risk of a fight back was killed off just before half time when Trevor Goss deflected Harvey Denning's drive from a Chard corner just inside the near post to make it 3-0, a scoreline which reflected their increasing dominance.

There was a lull in the scoring at the start of the second half but Chard remained completely in control.

Jason Goddard was able to step out from the back four to exert even more influence for Chard's midfield, alongside the silky skills of Harry Felgate and Trevor Goss whose aerial passes caused the home defence constant problems facing into the low sun.

Chard attacked down both wings but the right hand side was particularly productive and a well worked move was rounded off with Eggle crossing to Dan Stone at the top of the D where he had time and space to pick his spot for number four.

Soon after Eggle scored his second following up when his initial effort was saved and Harvey Denning was rewarded for his work down the left wing as he hit the sixth, taking the rebound, after Stone's shot from his cross having been saved.

Baillie then pulled off a superb diving save at the foot of the post from a rare Minehead attack, his reactions clearly not numbed by the biting cross wind despite having little to do up to that point.

Chard's seventh was a text book penalty corner, Goss injecting, Eggle stopping, and Stone flicking into the top angle of the net at such speed that keeper and defenders had no time to react.

Stone, Denning, Goss and Eggle all had further chances to add to the score before Eggle wrapped things up with his third and Chard's eighth with another crisp shot into the corner of the net.

Chard: C Baillie, N Liggins, A Critchley, J Goddard, S Mahoney, T Goss, H Felgate, G Eggle (capt), D Stone, H Denning, N Parkinson, T King.

Students give staff footballing lesson!

◆ ALL IN A GOOD CAUSE: The Holyrood Academy sixth form football team, led by Willis Lawrence, took on a select Staff select XI captained by Mr Gilbert in aid of Children in Need last week.

It was clear from the offset that the Staff team was not in great shape! After just three minutes students' striker Brad Minchinton calmly slotted past the stranded Jenkins.

The Staff team equalised six minutes later when a cross from the right wing by Faulkes left Barker with an easy tap in.

However that was as good as it got for the struggling Staff as Minchinton flummoxed keeper Jenkins with a precise finish on the quarter hour.

The Staff toiled to break down the 6th form midfield but the lack of quality service to the staff striker Edmunds and sound defence by Jack Isaacs meant that Students keeper James was rarely troubled.

As half time approached Taylor sent a long goal kick forward that was misjudged by staff defence, leaving Louis Major clear to drive the ball into the roof of the net to make it 3-1.

The start of the second half brought a fresh impetus to the Staff team and Edmunds' cross was handled by Emil Szydetko, the referee awarded a dubious penalty which Roper slotted home to make it 3-2.

The celebrations were short lived however, as a 25-yard half volley by Szydetko rocketed into the net. Then Joe Hinners weaved through the staff defence late on to make it 5-2.

Mr Gilbert said, "We congratulate the students on their thoroughly deserved win. We will learn the lessons from tonight and come back stronger next year!"

There were some great weights with some big chub and bream featuring in catches and the top six anglers all recorded double figures.

Ashley Tomkins had a good day catching quality roach plus four big chub for the best weight on the day with 24lb 7oz from peg 13. Tomkins caught shallow on the pole with caster and his biggest chub was an impressive 4lb 8oz.

Graham Field was second with 18lb 2oz from peg 2 and he had five chub plus roach on the short pole with worm and caster. Third place went to Steve Hurford on peg 10 who fished the feeder and had a bream and skimmers for 16lb 5oz.

After three matches and dropping the worst result, Graham Field leads with two points followed by Robin Cox on three and Justin Charles and Jamie Rich on four. Sections; A - Justin Charles (Ilminster) - 14lb 11oz. B - Jamie Rich (Against Men and Fish) - 14lb.

Eleven members fished round three of the V.E.S. Precision League on the River Isle on Sunday.

The river was in good condition with a tinge of colour and some pace, and the top three all recorded double figure weights.

Leading the way was Martin Heard who had a nice net of roach and perch weighing 13lb 15oz on the pole and caster from peg H2 at Hambridge despite suffering quite a bit of pike trouble.

Robin Cox was second from the peg next door to Martin with 10lb 13oz of mainly roach and just behind was Graham Field who had 10lb 12oz of roach, dace and gudgeon from peg 128 at Isle Brewers.

Sections: A - Frank Woodard (Ilminster) - 9lb 3oz. B - Leighton Cox (Ilminster) - 6lb 11oz

◆ The next match is on Sunday (November 29th), the draw is at the Royal Oak between 8.30 and 9am.
